AROUND FINTECH IN 8 HOURS

The Asian Banking School is pleased to be collaborating with the Centre of Finance, Technology and Entrepreneurship on this online Fintech Foundation programme - Around Fintech in 8 hours. The objective of the programme is to provide banking professionals with an understanding of the changes brought by technology to the financial industry.

In 8 hours, those who take the programme will have a solid foundation in Fintech. They will learn from world class experts and receive insights from inspirational speakers such as Claire Calmejane (Director of innovation at Lloyds), Rob Frohwein (CEO of Kabbage, a Fintech “unicorn”), Ronit Ghose (Global Head of Bank Research at Citi) and many others.

The curriculum is designed by 4 senior lecturers who created Fintech courses at major universities and will demystify what is happening in finance. It will provide students with an overview of the main Fintech trends, the main technological changes (Blockchain, APIs...), focus on new emerging sectors within the financial industry and look at the main players driving the growth of the Fintech ecosystem.

Once the participants successfully complete the 16 modules, they will receive a Certificate of Completion.
