Designing Learning That Transforms

THEME OVERVIEW

Designing Learning That Transforms

Asia LearnTech Exchange ALTX 2025 explores how learning technology, AI, and blended delivery models are shaping the future of workforce development. The theme highlights transformation not just in technology, but in culture, leadership, and the way organizations scale learning to deliver measurable business impact.

About ALTX

Asia Learn Tech Exchange (ALTX) 2025 is Southeast Asia's first-of-its-kind flagship conference on modern learning technologies.

This full-day event unites L&D professionals, EdTech leaders, corporate trainers, and innovation strategists to explore how AI-powered content, blended learning delivery, and digital learning blueprints are transforming the future of workplace learning.

Through global insights and regional best practices, participants will discover proven frameworks and actionable strategies to:

- Align digital learning initiatives with business and performance goals
- Harness AI and automation to enhance learning efficiency
- Design blended and hybrid models that boost learner engagement
- Build sustainable, future-ready learning cultures

Backed by real-world case studies from leading names in banking, education, and corporate training, ALTX 2025 delivers both visionary insights and practical takeaways for modern learning transformation.
