LEADERSHIP ON THE EDGE: NAVIGATING CHAOS, CULTURE & CHANGE

Are Leaders Ready for the Next Decade?

4 August 2026 | AICB Centre of Excellence, Kuala Lumpur

Supported by:

LEADING THROUGH CHAOS BUILDING ADAPTIVE ORGANISATIONS SHAPING THE FUTURE OF LEADERSHIP

As disruption becomes the new normal, leadership must evolve beyond traditional models. The Leadership on the Edge Forum 2026 brings together distinguished business leaders, transformation experts and world-class performers to explore what it takes to lead with clarity, courage and resilience in an increasingly complex world.

ABOUT THE FORUM:

The next decade will belong to organisations that can adapt quickly, build resilient cultures and develop leaders capable of navigating uncertainty with confidence.

Global volatility, technological acceleration and changing workforce expectations are redefining how organisations compete and grow. Traditional leadership approaches are no longer sufficient. Today's leaders must build trust, inspire transformation and create organisations that can continuously learn and adapt.

The Leadership on the Edge Forum 2026, jointly presented by Asian Banking School (ABS) and Coaching Culture International (CCI), is designed to help leaders rethink leadership for a rapidly changing world.

Across two keynote sessions and two high-impact panel discussions, participants will gain practical insights into leading through disruption, strengthening organisational culture, developing future-ready talent and building the human capabilities that technology alone cannot replace.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Lead confidently in uncertain and rapidly changing environments
- Build cultures grounded in trust, accountability and psychological safety
- Reinvent leadership practices to support organisational agility
- Develop resilient, adaptive and future-ready teams
- Strengthen influence across generations, functions and organisational boundaries
- Transform uncertainty into long-term strategic advantage

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Senior Leaders & Executives

CEOs, Managing Directors, Board Members, Executive Directors and Senior Management seeking new leadership approaches for an increasingly volatile business environment.

Human Capital Leaders
